NLR North Little Rock ARKANSAS

DESTINATION GUIDE

Welcome

North Little Rock, Arkansas – "NLR" – has my heart. I've seen it blossom into a destination, with only more good things to come. Major highways make it easy to get here, and the outdoor beauty matched with a thriving arts and entertainment scene make you want to stay. Welcome!

Highlights:

- Stop by the North Little Rock Welcome Center at 600 Main Street for information and to shop for local keepsakes.
- Stroll across the street from the welcome center to Argenta Plaza, our city's "front porch," as we like to say. The plaza is open and free, with beautiful water features and plenty of space to relax and enjoy. We regularly host live entertainment, so check our online event calendar for what's happening.
- Cyclists are already having a field day with the addition of Big Rock Quarry Bike Park, with even more phases in the works.

You'll find that here in North Little Rock, we're always up to something! Enjoy your visit and please stop by and see us at the North Little Rock Welcome Center. We would love to help you find things to do, places to eat and where to stay.

Sincerely,

Karen Trevino

REPURPOSED

An estimated 20 million tons of rock were chipped from "Big Rock" starting in the 1840s, giving Emerald Park its infamous bluffs. Remnants from the mining, including concrete and metal pipes, are still visible at the base. Today, the old quarry has been transformed into Big Rock Quarry Bike Park, with a pump track and more to come.
